and accurate. The writer, in his accompanying letter, says of the new party:

-, [the writer's State] they are Whigs and Abolitionists, with a sprinkling of bogus, anti-Nebraska Democrats. It is undoubtedly intended by the movers and originators of this new party, to establish themselves thoroughly in all cities, towns, villages, cross-roads and neighborhods, preparatory to the elections of '56, and carry their brotherhood then into office.

"The present ritual of the order in this State has come into my hands by accident. They adopt as few writen formulæ in their Councils as possible; but they use a pamphlet containing their short con-stitution and by-laws, their method of procedure in initiating members, the duty of officers, instructions to the initiated candidates of the 1st, 2d, and 3d degrees; in fact, all their principles and objects. The oaths, it is supposed, are the same throughout the United States, in Virginia as well as this State; and to aid you, I copy all and send them to you enclosed. I was never a member of the order; the whole thing having been disclosed to me by one of their

"There is a Grand Council for each State. Councils subordinate may be instituted in any locality in a State by a Charter from the Grand Council, precoded by a petition for the same from thirteen citizens, who are initiated by a travelling agent, They pay $12, receive a charter and seal, and go to work. They aim at all the power—not at the balance, as you have been led to suppose.

"Know-Nothingism is opposed to the sentiments which, by the aid of your Jefferson, and all your revolutionary men, brought these States out of servitude to independence. The ends of Know-Nothingism are nothing short of sectarian power, which they will carry, if necessary, over the slain bodies of a great, patriotic and true class of American citizens and Democrats. It will never do; and this cannot fail of being immediately apparent on the examination of their oaths and teste. Is it right that Catholics and ad ited citizens should be totally proscribed in a republican government, where all our onstitutions are most particular in "proscribing proscription. "? What can come of it but alienation of brotherly love, prostration of fraternal feeling, civil war in all our cities, feuds in our villages, battles on our public works, discord, anarchy, overthrow of republicanism, and arrest of progress? I ocracy and Americanism, have not the least objec- as they may come to my knowledge. tion to your institutions at the South, and I am glad to see and know, that the South is equally progressive and thrifty with the North. I hope that Kansas and Nebraska may both be populated by your people, and slavery be adopted in their constitutions. If the North should refuse to accept them, maintain your rights at the hazard of dissolution. Though that would be to be regretted and deplored, it is your right, and being so, should be maintained. I would mention that Know-Nothing Councilsthat is the name their associations are known by among themselves; as, for instance, "Ethan Allen Council, No. 34, of the Supreme Order of '76;' (Know-Nothing is for outside barbarians)-make nominations directly, when strong enough to elect officers; and their system ramafies into every business and relation of life, their members swearing to support a brother before all others." ABSTRACT of the Oaths and Principles of the mysterious Order of Know Nothings. The candidate is first proposed, by a member of the Order, to the Council, without his knowledge. Three negative votes black-balls him. If elected, he is secretly requested to present himself in the ante-room of the Council, when an officer appears from within and administers to him the following

-, do solemnly swear upon this sacred volume, [or cross,] before Almighty God and these witnesses, that I will not divulge any question proposed to me here, whether I become a member of this order or not; and that I will never under any circumstances whatever, | mention the name of any person [il may see present | during any of the meetings or that I know such an order to be in existence, and that I will a true answer make to every question asked of mel so help me God.'

Which being seriously taken by the candidate, the officer proceeds to propound the following interrogations, before reporting to the Council his fitness far initiation:

"1. What is your name? 2. What is your age? 8. Where is your residence? 4. In your religious belief are you Roman Catholic? 5. Where were you born? 6. Where were your parents born? 7. Where were you grand parents born? 8. Did either of your ancestors take a part in the American Revolution? 3. Are you willing to use all the influence you possess in favor of native born American citizens, for all offices of honor, trust or profit in the gift of the people; and do you promise to vote for them to the exclusion of all aliens and foreigners, and Roman Catholics in particular, for all local, State or Government offices? Who invited you to be present on this occasion?"

If the candidate's answers are satisfactory to these questions, he is taken into the Council by two officers, led up to the President of the Council, who administers the following oath in the 1st Degree:

"I,---voluntarily and freely do solemnly promise and swear, before Almighty God and these witnesses around me assembled, that I will not, under any circumstances whatever, divulge or make known to any person or persons, either directly or indirectly, or to any human being other than those I shall know to be good and true members of this Order, the name, secrets, mysteries, or objects of the same, or cause or allow the same to be done by others, if within my power to prevent the same. Binding myself under the no less penalty than that of being excommunicated from the Order, and having my name posted and circulated throughout the different Councils of the Order, as a traitor and perjurer to both my God and country, and as being unworthy to be employed, entrusted, countenanced, or supported in any business transaction whatever. and as a person totally unworthy of the confidence of all good men, and one at whom the finger of scorn shall ever be pointed. I furthermore promise that if I should hereafter be expelled from, or voluntarily leave the Order, I will consider this obligation as binding out of it as in it. All of which foregoing I voluntariy and freely subscribe to, so help me God!

The candidate is then led to an officer called the Judge Advocate, who harrangues him after this manner. (There is generally half a dozen or more initiated together.)

"My Brothers: The Order which has now received you as members, may with all propriety be considered a Secret Organization. It is so secret in fact, that if you were placed before a legal tribunal, and there sworn to tell the truth, and nothing but the truth, you could not for your lives reveal the name of that band of brothers, among whom your name now stands enrolled; and further than this, when you retire from this meeting, you will return to your families and friends as ignorant as when you came, as far as the name of this Order is concerned.

"In common with ourselves you "Know Nothing, and let it be your stern resolve through life, to "Know Nothing" that will at all conflict with the high and exalted duties you owe to your God, your country and yourselves, so far as regards the preservation of American liberty, which can alone be secured to ourselves and our children by the entire and absolute exclusion of all foreign influence in those matters which appertain to our government policy."

After the delivery of this patriotic address, the candidate is referred to the Instructor, who teaches fession.

him the signs and grips, and in what manner to obtain entrance into the Council. He is then Master of the 1st Degree, and signs his name to the register. If he behaves well two weeks, and it is conceded that he will do to become a full blooded Know Nothing-abstains from all blabb outside the Council, his friends propose him for the 2nd Degree. After election to that Degree, he and others are brought in and take the following oath: "I, ____, do solemnly promise and swear before Almighty God, and these witnesses, that I will not, under any circumstances, divulge or make known the name of this Order, or its objects, to any person or persons in the world, unless to those whom I may know to belong to this Order, in good and regular

"And I furthermore promise and swear that I will neither write, print, paint, cut, carve, engrave, emboss, stamp, stain, or mark any secrets of this Order, on anything moveable or immoveable on the earth or sea, whereby said secrets, or any part thereof, the name of the Order, its operations, the names of its efficers, or the name of its members or its place of meeting, may become known to those who have not received the first and second Degrees of this Order in due form; nor will I cause or permit the same to do be done, if within my power to prevent

"And I furthermore promise and swear that I will always conform to the will of the majority of the members of this Order, in the selection of candidates to fill every office of honor, profit or trust, within the gift of the people; provided such candidates shall have been born of American parents, on American soil, and shall have been educated in American institutions, and that I will use all the influence I may possess to elect all such candidates whom I may know to be opposed to all foreign influence, Popery Jesuitism and Catholicism, without any hesitation on my part whatever. And I furthermore promise and swear that I will strictly conform to and abide by the oath I have now taken, and that I will strict obedience pay to the Constitution, Laws, Rules, Ritual and Edicts of the honorable Grand Council of this Order, of the State of -, and to the By Laws of - Council No. -, to which I now belong, or to those of any other Grand or Subordinate Council from which I may hereafter hail, binding myself under the no less penalties than are attached or belong to those who violate the oath of the first degree of this Order. All the foregoing I voluntarily and freely subscribe to of my own free will and accord So help me God!"

This candidate is also led off to the Judge Adrocate, and afterwards to the Instructor; but their speeches and lectures are not inserted here for want

OBLIGATION THIRD DEGREE. -, kneeling before God, my maker, my left hand upraised towards heaven, my right hand grasping the flag of my native land, of my own free will and accord, do solemnly and sincerely promise, declare and swear that I will never communicate any of the secrets of this degree to anylperson or persons in the world, except within the body of a legally organized Council of this Order, or to a known brother of this degree, and not unto him, nor unto them, until I am well assured that they are just and upright brethren who are legally entitled to receive the same. I also promise and swear that I will due obedience pay to the Constitution, Laws and Edicts of the honorable Grand Council of the State of am myself in favor of the fastest and youngest Dem- and to the laws which govern Council No. -, so far

"I also promise and swear that whenever I may vote at any election, that vote shall in all cases be given for native born American citizens only, and that I will ever seek the political advancement of those men who are good and true members of this

I also promise and swear that this and all other obligations which I have previously taken in this Order, shall be kept through life sacred and inviolate. I also promise and swear that whenever I may hear the sign or see the signal of distress given by any brother of this Order, I will hasten at once to his immediate relief at the peril of my own

I also promise and swear that I will ever contribute my means in such sums as I can spare without personal inconvenience, to the advancement of our views and to the extension of American principles through the medium of the Grand Council of the State of -I also promise and swear that I will never permit a spurious or clandestine member of this Order, to participate in any of the benefits, or the advantages thereof, and that I will never encourage, countenance, uphold, recognize or support a spurious or clandestine council of this Order. To all these and those I do most sincerely promise, declare and swear, binding myself under no less a penalty than that of having my grave trampled on by foreigners, and to have my memory cursed by my children and by my children's children, as a traitor to their welfare, to my country and to my God. So help me God and witness my obligation.'

The Judge Advocate then addresses the newly initiated brethren in this degree as follows: "My Brothers: The different obligations you have taken in this Order, through its different degrees, must have convinced you that all who claim to be American citizens have certain important duties to perform toward themselves and to society at large, which duties can, in no instance, be set aside or an nulled without a palpable violation of the dearest rights and privileges which, each and every member of our organization would wish to enjoy. The peculiar formation of our Order is such, and its designs so accord with the wishes of its members, that by a system of concerted action on the part of our brotherhood, we can bring about a series of practical results in our governmental policy that would in any other light be deemed wholly impracticable. Simply and alone it is in vain to contend against the hydra-headed monsters of Jesuitism and Catholicism. but united in one common cause, determined to secure the liberties of our native land at all hazards. or perish in the attempt, we cannot fail of success. Our cause is a righteous one, the motives which actuate us are of no ordinary character, and we trust that no brother among us will ever be found absent from his post in the hour of danger."

The candidate is then again taken to the Instructor, who gives him the signs, pass-words and grips

He pays a dime to the Secretary at the initiation of each degree, and 50 cents on first entering the Ante-Room for examination. After the 3d degree has been thus administered, the Secretary gives him a travelling card like this:

RICHMOND, VA., August 1, 1854. o JOHN SMITH is a member in good o standing of Molly o Molly Stark Council Stark Council, No. o No. 40, [*] Rich-40, of the State of o mond, Va. Virginia. JOHN STILES, Sec'y o

This card is carried in the pocket-pook, and admits member into any Council in the State. Such is Know Nothingism. It out-Jesuits Jesuitism. It makes its Council greater than the State. It makes of its President more than Catholicism makes of its Pope. It enslaves the conscience, the heart the mind, the tongue, the pen, the purse:—it enslaves the soul. The freeman will not bow his neck to the yoke. Alas for him if he does.

Such is the picture. It is too true for a jest. The Know Nothings must keep their temper. We mean to keep ours. We are not done with the subject.

A FASHOINABLE DENTIST IN SERIOUS TROUBLE. Philadelphia, Aug 8 Mr. Beall, one amongst our most fashionable dentists—quite distingushed in his art, was brought up before the Mayor (Conrad) this morning and held to bail in the sum of $5,000, charged with attempting to commit a rape on a highly respectable young lady (her name I omit) about nineteen years of age.

It seems that she had gone to his office to have her teeth arranged and fixed. Whilst undergoing the operation or about preparing for it, she is said to have been placed under the influence of Ether or Chloroform, and in this condition the accused is charged with having taken undue advantage of her helpless situation. She was very beautiful, highly accomplished, and under engagement of marriage, the nuprials soon to be celebrated.

The affair has produced intense excitement and indignation. The accused, heretofore, bore a good reputation and enjoyed a large practice in his pro-

FOR ALL THE PURPOSES OF FAMILY PHYSIC

There has long existed a public demand for an effective purgative pill which could be relied on as sure and perfectly safe in its operation. This has been prepared to meet that demand, and an extensive trial of its virtues has conclusively shown with what success it accomplishes the purpose designed. It is easy to make a physical pill, but not easy to make the best of all pills—one which should have none of the objections, but all the advantages, of every other. This has been attempted here, and with what success we would respectfully submit to the public decision. It has been unfortunate for the patient hitherto that almost every purgative medicine is acrimonious and irritating to the boxels. This is not. Many of them produce so much griping pain and revulsion in the system as to more than counterbalance the good to be derived from them. These pills produce no irritation or pain, unless it arise from a previously existing obstruction or derangement in the bowels. Being purely vegetable, no harm can arise from their use in any quantity; but it is better that any medicine should be taken judiciously. Minute directions for their use in the several diseases to which they are applicable are given on the box. Among the complaints which have been speedily cured by them.

be taken judiciously. Minute directions for their use in the several diseases to which they are applicable are given on the box. Among the complaints which have been speedily cured by them, we may mention Liver Complaint, in its various forms of Jaundice, Indigestion, Languor and Loss of Appetite, Listlessness, Irritability, Bilious Headache, Bilious Fever, Fever and Ague, Pain in the Side and Loins; for, in truth, all these are but the consequence of diseased action in the liver. As an aperient, they afford prompt and sure relief in Constitueness, Piles, Colic, Dysentery, Humors, Scrofula and Scurvy, Colds with soreness of the body. Ulcers and impurity of the blood; in short, any and every case where a purgative is required.

They have also produced some singularly mecessful cures in Rheumatism, Gout, Dropsy, Gravel, Erysipelas, Palpitation of the Heart, Pains in the Back, Stomach, and Side. They should be freely taken in the spring of the year, to purify the blood and prepare the system for the change of seasons. An occasional dose stimulates the stomach and bowels into healthy action, and restores the appetite and vigor. They purify the blood, and, by their stimulant action on the circulatory system, reservate the strength of the body, and restore the wasted or diseased energies of the whole organism. Hence an occasional dose is advantageous, even though no serious derangement exists; but unnecessary dosing should never be carried to for though no serious derangement exists; but un-necessary dosing should never be carried too far, as every purgative medicine reduces the strength, when taken to excess. The thousand cases in which a physic is required cannot be enumerated here, but they suggest themselves to the reason of every body; and it is confidently believed this pill will answer a better purpose than any thing which has hitherto been available to mankind. When their hitherto been available to mankind. When their virtues are once known, the public will no longer doubt what remedy to employ when in need of a cathartic medicine. Being sugar-wrapped they are pleasant to take, and being purely vegetable, no harm can arise from their use in any quantity.

For minute directions see wrapper on the Box.

THIS remedy has won for itself such notoriety from its cures of every variety of pulmonary disease, that it is entirely unnecessary to recount the evidences of its virtues in any community where it has been employed. When once tried its superiority over every other medicine of its kind is too apparent to escape observation, and where its virtues an known, the public no longer hesitate what antidate to employ for the distressing and dangerous affections of the pulmonary organs which are incident to our climate.
